Workers Compensation:

Under North Dakota law, employers are required to secure and have in place workers compensation coverage for its employees. These requirements of North Dakota law continue even when employees leave this State and travel to another state or foreign country. The laws of other jurisdictions may also require employers to secure coverage. Questions arising from the extraterritorial application of North Dakota's compulsory workers compensation laws are addressed in detail by statute and implementing administrative rule.

Employees that travel out-of-state for a period of 30 days or less generally continue to be deemed to regularly work at or from employment principally localized in this state. This principal applies to foreign travel as well as travel to other states. If travel outside the country extends beyond 30 days, additional information on the existence of a workers compensation system in that foreign jurisdiction is necessary. See Risk Management’s website for more information and resources on this process.

To report a work related injury that occurs out of country, state employees must follow the same procedures that have been established for other work related injuries and as set forth in Risk Management’s Workers Compensation Program.

Chubb (formerly ACE) International Advantage Insurance:

In addition, the Risk Management Fund purchases insurance coverage for state employees traveling out of the country on official state business. The primary purpose of this policy is to cover potential liability exposures that may arise from a state employee travelling out of the country. However, the policy package offers other areas of coverage such as:

- Commercial General Liability
- Kidnap & Extortion
- Employers Responsibility
- Contingent Automobile Liability
- AD&D and Medical
- Executive Assistance Services

General information about the coverage can be found at Chubb International Advantage.

NOTE that the information posted on the Chubb website may reference coverage for various groups, such as students. However, this policy ONLY applies to state employees as outlined above.

An employee may be responsible for costs/out-of-pocket expenses associated with an injury if the coverage requirements as outlined above have not been met. Costs/out-of-pocket expenses may be submitted to your personal health insurance.

International Travel Safety

U.S. Department of State: provides current safety conditions and travel advisories for every country. There are four categories of travel advisories described in Informing U.S. Citizen Travelers-Consular Safety and Security Messaging.

One way to receive the latest safety and security information about your destination country, is to enroll your trip with the Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP). STEP provides:
- Alerts from the U.S. Embassy about safety and security situations.
- Updates to the country’s Travel Advisory.
- Help the U.S. Embassy contact you in an emergency.
- Help family and friends get in touch with you in an emergency.

The Department of State’s website provides various resources and outlines specific steps that you can take to help make informed decisions about travel plans. The Department of State also has several options available to Stay Connected and receive updates about travel advisories and alerts.

Informing U.S. Citizen Travelers
Consular Safety and Security Messaging

Our clear, timely, and reliable safety and security information helps U.S. citizens make informed decisions about their time overseas. Consular Affairs provides information on the internet, through the Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP), and on social media.

While we issue an overall Travel Advisory level for every country, levels of advice may vary for specific locations or areas within a country. For instance, we may advise U.S. citizens to “Exercise Increased Caution” (Level 2) in a country, but to “Reconsider Travel” (Level 3) to a particular area within the country.

TIMELY AND RELIABLE INFORMATION
We review and update each Travel Advisory as needed, based on changes to security and safety information. In addition to these “as needed” reviews, we review Level 3 and 4 Advisories semiannually, and Level 1 and 2 Advisories annually.

ALERTS
Alerts are used to notify U.S. citizens of specific events and changes happening locally, and as quickly as possible. The embassy or consulate can choose from a menu of pre-approved language for a number of threat types, making the process efficient and allowing them to get information to U.S. citizens quickly.

Travel Advisories

We issue a Travel Advisory for every country, providing overall levels of advice from 1 to 4.

1. Exercise normal precautions

   Level 1 - Exercise Normal Precautions: This is the lowest advisory level for safety and security risk. There is some risk in any international travel. Conditions in other countries may differ from those in the United States and may change at any time.

2. Exercise increased caution

   Level 2 - Exercise Increased Caution: Be aware of heightened risks to safety and security. The Department of State provides additional advice for travelers in these areas in the Travel Advisory. Conditions in any country may change at any time.

3. Reconsider travel

   Level 3 - Reconsider Travel: Avoid travel due to serious risks to safety and security. The Department of State provides additional advice for travelers in these areas in the Travel Advisory. Conditions in any country may change at any time.

4. Do not travel

   Level 4 - Do Not Travel: This is the highest advisory level due to greater likelihood of life-threatening risks. During an emergency, the U.S. government may have very limited ability to provide assistance. The Department of State advises that U.S. citizens not travel to the country or leave as soon as it is safe to do so. The Department of State provides additional advice for travelers in these areas in the Travel Advisory. Conditions in any country may change at any time.
Our detailed Travel Advisories will also provide clear reasons for the level assigned, using established risk indicators, and offer specific advice to U.S. citizens who choose to travel there:

- TIME-LIMITED EVENT: A short-term event, such as an election, sporting event, or other incident that may pose a safety risk.

- CRIME: Widespread violent or organized crime is present in areas of the country. Local law enforcement may have limited ability to respond to serious crimes.

- TERRORISM: Terrorist attacks have occurred and/or specific threats against civilians, groups, or other targets may exist.

- CIVIL UNREST: Political, economic, religious, and/or ethnic instability exists and may cause violence, major disruptions, and/or safety risks.

- NATURAL DISASTER: A natural disaster, or its aftermath, poses danger.

- HEALTH: Health risks, including current disease outbreaks or a crisis that disrupts a country’s medical infrastructure, are present. The issuance of a Centers for Disease Control Travel Notice may be a factor.

- KIDNAPPING OR HOSTAGE TAKING: Criminal or terrorist individuals or groups have threatened to and/or have seized or detained and threatened to kill, injure or continue to detain individuals in order to compel a third party (including a governmental organization) to do or abstain from doing something as a condition of release.

- OTHER: There are potential risks not covered by previous risk indicators. Read the country’s Travel Advisory for details.
