April 12 – Doing Business with the States of Minnesota, North and South Dakota

Luke Jannett, State of MN; Angie Scherbenske, State of ND; Steven Berg, State of SD

This workshop will provide an overview and details about contracting with the states of Minnesota, North and South Dakota. Topics to be covered include an overview of each state's purchasing practices, where the dollars come from, how the dollars can be spent, how to get registered as a vendor, where to find business opportunities, and what the state expects of its contractors.

May 3 – Federal Invoice Requirements

Kareen Dougherty, South Dakota Procurement Technical Assistance Center (PTAC)

Increasingly, Federal Agencies are requiring their vendors to use online invoicing systems to request payment. This workshop will present the basics about getting paid for a contract using invoicing systems including the Department of Defense (IRAPT/WAWF), the Department of Veterans Affairs (TUNGSTEN/OB10), and the Department of the Interior (IPP).

June 7 – Understanding Federal Acquisition Regulations (FAR)

Darin Perius, North Dakota Procurement Technical Assistance Center (PTAC)

The Federal Acquisition Regulations (FAR) govern how federal government agencies buy their products and services. This webinar will give you a fundamental understanding of the FAR, explain important sections for small businesses and show you how to more easily navigate this complex set of rules and regulations.

June 21 – Understanding and Using FedBid

Jake Jedlicka, FedBid

FedBid is an online full-service reverse auction platform connecting Sellers to solicitations from federal, state and local government, commercial organizations and educational institutions. Through the marketplace, you are able to compete on everything from simple goods and services to complex multi-award contracts all in one place. This webinar will provide a brief introduction to FedBid and how sellers can utilize the marketplace, a live demonstration of finding Buys and placing bids on solicitations, and a question & answer period.
