Dear Taxpayer,

The Form 60 and instructions are completely new for 2006 and have been placed in their own booklet for the first time.

The new features include:

- A new schedule on which North Dakota adjustments and tax credits are identified.
- A new state version of Schedule K-1 for providing information to shareholders.
- Integration of the new passthrough entity withholding requirement into Form 60.
- Integration of the composite filing method into Form 60.
- More comprehensive set of instructions.

Integrating the passthrough withholding and composite filing into the Form 60 streamlines these processes for S corporations. The revised instructions contain more information as well as better guidance in completing Form 60. I invite you to let us know what you think about the new forms and instructions and what can be improved. Your comments help us to improve our services to you.

Please read these instructions carefully. If you have questions or need additional forms, go to our web site at www.nd.gov/tax. Or see the inside front cover of this booklet if you need to contact us by phone, e-mail, or letter.

Thank you,

Cory Fong,
Tax Commissioner

What’s new for 2006

New passthrough withholding requirement
Starting with the 2006 tax year, an S corporation must withhold North Dakota income tax at the rate of 5.54 percent from the year-end distributive share of North Dakota source income of its nonresident individual shareholders. However, withholding is not required if:
- The distributive share of North Dakota income for the taxable year is less than $1,000; or
- The shareholder elects to be included in a composite income tax return filed by the S corporation.

The calculation, reporting, and payment of the income tax required to be withheld has been integrated into the 2006 Form 60.

The corporation reports the withholding to the shareholder on North Dakota Schedule K-1 (Form 60), which is new for 2006. The shareholder claims the withheld income tax by entering it on the income tax withholding line of Form 60, including payment of the withheld tax. See Schedule KS.

• The distributive share of North Dakota income for the taxable year is less than $1,000; or
• The shareholder elects to be included in a composite income tax return filed by the S corporation.

The calculation, reporting, and payment of the income tax required to be withheld has been integrated into the 2006 Form 60.

The corporation reports the withholding to the shareholder on North Dakota Schedule K-1 (Form 60), which is new for 2006. The shareholder claims the withheld income tax by entering it on the income tax withholding line of Form 60, including payment of the withheld tax. See Schedule KS.

• The shareholder elects to be included in a composite income tax return filed by the S corporation.

Changes to composite filing procedure
Starting with the 2006 tax year, the composite filing procedure that is available to an S corporation with eligible nonresident individual shareholders has changed. The calculation, reporting, and payment of income tax under the composite filing method has been integrated into the 2006 Form 60. For complete information, see “Composite filing method” on page 3.

New look for 2006 Form 60
Both the structure and content of Form 60 have changed for 2006. The form was revised to provide more information about the S corporation’s income, gains, losses, deductions, adjustments and tax credits, and the shareholders’ shares of these items. Following are highlights of the new features of Form 60:
- The schedules making up Form 60 have been revised and renamed.
- A new schedule, Schedule K, was added on which the corporation must report the North Dakota adjustments and tax credits passed through to its shareholders.
- The new passthrough entity withholding requirement was integrated into Form 60, including payment of the withheld tax. See Schedule KS.
- The composite filing method available to an S corporation with eligible nonresident individual shareholders was integrated into Form 60, including payment of the composite income tax. See Schedule KS.
- A new schedule, North Dakota Schedule K-1 (Form 60), was created. See “New state Schedule K-1” below.
- The instructions to Form 60 were revised and expanded to provide more comprehensive guidance on how to prepare the form.

New state Schedule K-1
A new schedule, North Dakota Schedule K-1 (Form 60), has been created to provide S corporations with a means to convey to their shareholders the information they will need to properly complete their own North Dakota income tax returns. The schedule includes instructions to the shareholders to assist them in transferring the information from the schedule to their North Dakota income tax returns.

New extension payment voucher
A new payment voucher, Form 60-EXT, has been created for an S corporation to use to prepay any income tax withholding, composite income tax, and tax on excess net passive income and built-in capital gains in the case where the corporation obtains an extension of time to file Form 60. The 2006 Form 60-EXT is available on our web site at www.nd.gov/tax.

New disclosure check-off
A new check-off box has been added to Form 60 that the corporation may use to authorize the Office of State Tax Commissioner (Tax Department) to talk directly to the person who prepared the corporation’s return. By checking the box, which is located next to the signature area on page 1 of Form 60, a corporation authorizes the Tax Department to contact the preparer with any questions that arise during the processing of the return. The corporation also authorizes its preparer to (1) provide information missing from the return, (2) contact the Tax Department about the status of the return’s processing, including any related refund or payment, and (3) respond to Tax Department notices that the corporation shares with the preparer relating to math errors and return preparation. The authorization only applies to the return on which it is made, and it automatically expires on the due date (excluding extensions) for filing the next year’s return. The authorization applies only to the individual whose signature and printed name appears in the paid preparer section of the signature area. It does not apply to the firm, if any, shown in that section. The authorization does not authorize the tax preparer to receive a refund check, to bind the corporation in any way (including any additional tax liability), or to otherwise represent the corporation before the Tax Department.
General instructions

Who must file
A 2006 Form 60, S Corporation Income Tax Return, must be filed by a corporation that meets both of the following:

- It is required to file a 2006 Form 1120S, U.S. Income Tax Return for an S Corporation; and
- It carries on business, or derives gross income from sources, in North Dakota during its 2006 tax year.

Exception for financial institution. If an S corporation is a bank, trust company, bank holding company, or other financial institution defined under N.D.C.C. Section 57-35.3-01(2), it is subject to the North Dakota financial institution tax and must file Form 35, Financial Institution Tax Return. Do not complete nor file Form 60 if required to file Form 35.

Nonfiler penalty. If an S corporation does not file Form 60 as required, a minimum $500 penalty may be assessed if the failure continues after receiving a thirty-day notice from the Office of State Tax Commissioner.

When and where to file
The 2006 Form 60 must be filed no later than:

- April 16, 2007, if filing for the 2006 calendar year; or
- The 15th day of the 4th month following the end of the tax year, if filing for a fiscal year beginning in the 2006 calendar year.

Note: Use the 2005 Form 60 if the corporation’s fiscal year began in the 2005 calendar year.

Mail Form 60 and all required attachments to:
Office of State Tax Commissioner
600 East Boulevard Ave., Dept. 127
Bismarck, ND 58505-0599

Extension of time to file
An extension of time to file Form 60 may be obtained in one of the following ways:

- Obtain a federal extension.
- Separately apply for a North Dakota extension.

Federal extension. If an extension of time to file the federal corporation return is obtained, it is automatically accepted as an extension of time to file Form 60. If this applies, a separate North Dakota extension does not have to be applied for, nor does the Office of State Tax Commissioner have to be notified that a federal extension has been obtained prior to filing Form 60. The “Extension” box on page 1 of Form 60 must be checked to indicate that an extension has been obtained. A copy of the federal extension form (Form 7004) does not have to be attached to Form 60; however, it should be retained on file in case the Office of State Tax Commissioner requests to see it.

North Dakota extension. If a federal extension is not obtained, but additional time is needed to complete and file Form 60, a separate North Dakota extension may be applied for by filing Form 101, Application for Extension of Time to File a North Dakota Tax Return. This is not an automatic extension—there must be good cause to request a North Dakota extension. Form 101 must be postmarked on or before the due date of Form 60. Notification of whether the extension is accepted or rejected will be provided by the Office of State Tax Commissioner. The “Extension” box on page 1 of Form 60 must be checked to indicate that an extension has been obtained. A copy of the approved Form 101 does not have to be attached to Form 60; however, it should be retained on file in case the Office of State Tax Commissioner requests to see it.

Prepayment of tax due. If an extension of time to file Form 60 is obtained and it is expected that there will be a tax due, the expected tax due may be paid on or before the regular due date. To do so, send a check or money order along with a completed 2006 Form 60-EXT, S Corporation Extension Payment Voucher, on or before the regular due date of Form 60.

Alternatively, a payment may be sent with a letter containing the following: (1) Name of corporation; (2) Corporation’s FEIN; (3) Corporation’s address and phone number; and (4) Statement that the payment is a 2006 Form 60-EXT payment.

Penalty and interest
The tax due must be paid by the due date (without extension) of Form 60 to avoid penalty and interest charges. However, if an extension of time to file the return was obtained, the tax due may be paid by the extended due date of the return without penalty, but extension interest will apply at the rate of 12% per year—see Prepayment of tax due on this page.

If a tax due is paid after the due date (or extended due date, if applicable), a penalty equal to 5% of the tax due (with a minimum of $5.00) will be charged. In addition, interest will be charged at the rate of 1% per month or a fraction of a month (except for the month in which the tax was due) until the tax is fully paid.

For purposes of calculating any penalty and interest amounts, use the lesser of the tax due (on line 6) or the excess, if any, of the corporation’s tax on excess net passive income and built-in gains (on line 1) over total estimated taxes paid (on line 5).

Estimated tax payment
An S corporation may, but is not required to, make estimated tax payments of income tax expected to be due on Form 60. To make an estimated payment for the 2007 tax year, send a check or money order along with a completed 2007 Form 60-ES, S Corporation Estimated Tax Payment Voucher.

Withholding from nonresident individual shareholders
An S corporation must withhold North Dakota income tax at the rate of 5.54 percent from the distributive share of North Dakota income of its nonresident individual shareholders. An S corporation does not have to withhold North Dakota income tax from a nonresident individual’s distributive share of North Dakota income if:

- The distributive share of North Dakota income is less than $1,000; or
- The nonresident individual shareholder elects to have his or her distributive share of North Dakota income included in, and the tax on it calculated under, the composite filing method—see “Composite filing method” in the next section for more information.

The amount withheld for a shareholder is reported in Column 7, Schedule KS, Form 60. The corporation must submit a payment with Form 60 for the total withholding reported on Schedule KS. See the instructions to Schedule KS and Schedule K-1 (Form 60) for more information.
Composite filing method
A composite filing method is available to an S corporation with one or more eligible shareholders. Under this method, an S corporation files one return, called a “composite return,” on behalf of one or more eligible shareholders. The composite return and the S corporation’s payment of the income tax calculated on it satisfies the North Dakota income tax filing and payment obligations of the eligible shareholders included in it. Therefore, they do not have to file their own North Dakota individual income tax return to report or pay tax on their distributive share of North Dakota income.

The use of the composite filing method by an S corporation is optional, and is a choice that it may make on a year-to-year basis. The corporation does not have to obtain prior approval to use the composite filing method, and it may file a composite return regardless of whether it has income or a loss for the tax year.

Exception to withholding. An S corporation does not have to withhold North Dakota income tax from the distributive share of North Dakota income of an eligible shareholder. Under this method, the eligible shareholder does not have to withhold North Dakota income tax on the distributive share of North Dakota income. Therefore, they do not have to file their own North Dakota individual income tax return to report or pay tax on their distributive share of North Dakota income.

Eligible shareholder. An eligible shareholder is an individual who:
• Is a nonresident of North Dakota; and
• Does not have any North Dakota income from other than the S corporation or any other partnership, S corporation, trust, or limited liability company (filing as a partnership).

An eligible shareholder may elect to be included in a composite return regardless of the amount of the shareholder’s distributive share of North Dakota income (or loss). In the case of a loss, the composite tax is zero.

Composite filing method procedure. The distributive share of North Dakota income of an electing shareholder is multiplied by the highest individual income tax rate (5.54 percent for the 2006 tax year) to determine the shareholder’s composite income tax. (If the North Dakota distributive share is a loss, the composite tax is zero.) No adjustments, deductions, or tax credits are allowed in calculating the tax due under the composite filing method. The Form 60 serves as the composite return. The composite income tax calculated for a shareholder is reported in Column 8, Schedule KS, Form 60. The corporation must submit a payment with Form 60 for the total composite income tax reported on Schedule KS.

Election. If an eligible shareholder agrees to be included in a composite return, the corporation’s calculation and reporting of a composite income tax for the shareholder in Column 8 of Schedule KS of Form 60 constitutes the shareholder’s election to be included in the composite return.

Correcting a previously filed return
If a corporation needs to correct an error in Form 60 after it is filed, the corporation must file an amended return. There is no special form for this purpose. See “How to prepare an amended return” below.

If a corporation paid too much tax because of an error in its 2006 Form 60, the corporation generally has three years from the later of the due date (excluding extensions) of the return or the date the return was actually filed in which to file an amended return to correct the error and claim a refund of the overpayment. See N.D.C.C. § 57-38-40 for other time periods that may apply.

How to prepare an amended 2006 return
1. Obtain a blank 2006 Form 60.
2. Enter the corporation’s name, current address, FEIN, etc., in the top portion of page 1 of Form 60.
3. Check the “Amended return” box at the top of page 1 of Form 60.
4. Complete Schedules FACT, BG, K, and KS using the corrected information. Then complete lines 1 through 4 on page 1 of Form 60.
5. Complete line 5 on page 1 of Form 60 by entering the total taxes due from the previously filed 2006 Form 60, page 1, line 4.
6. Complete line 6 (tax due) or line 7 (overpayment), whichever applies. If there is an overpayment on line 7, enter the full amount on line 9 (refund). On an amended return, the amount credited to the next year’s estimated tax (line 8) may not be increased or decreased.
7. Attach a statement explaining the reason(s) for filing the amended return. If it is because of changes the corporation or the IRS made to the corporation’s 2006 Federal Form 1120S, attach a copy of the amended federal return or IRS notice.
8. Complete and provide a corrected Schedule K-1 to the shareholders, as required.

Reporting federal changes
If the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) changes or audits the federal corporation return, or if a corporation files an amended federal corporation return, an amended North Dakota Form 60 must be filed within ninety days after the final determination of the IRS changes or the filing of the amended federal return. Enclose a copy of the IRS audit report or the amended federal corporation return with the amended North Dakota Form 60.

W-2/1099 reporting requirement
Every corporation doing business in North Dakota that is required to file Federal Form 1099 or W-2 must also file one with the Office of State Tax Commissioner. For more information, obtain the document Income Tax Guideline: Information Returns.

Use of information
All of the information on Form 60 and its attachments is confidential by law and cannot be given to others except as provided by state law. Information about the shareholders is required under state law so the Office of State Tax Commissioner can determine the shareholder’s correct North Dakota taxable income and verify if the shareholder has filed a return and paid the tax.

Instructions for Schedule K-1

With the exception of the taxes on excess net passive income and built-in gains, an S corporation is not subject to North Dakota income tax. Instead, the shareholders are responsible for reporting and paying any applicable North Dakota income tax on their shares of the corporation’s income reportable to North Dakota.

North Dakota Schedule K-1 (Form 60) must be used by an S corporation to provide information the shareholders need to complete a North Dakota income tax return. The information to include will depend on the type of shareholder.

North Dakota Schedule K-1 (Form 60) must be completed and given to:

- Each nonresident individual, estate, or trust shareholder.
- Each qualified subchapter S trust (QSST) and electing small business trust (ESBT) with a nonresident individual or estate beneficiary.
- Each North Dakota resident individual, estate, or trust shareholder having a North Dakota adjustment or tax credit as reported on Form 60, Schedule K, lines 1 through 16. Note: If there are no North Dakota adjustments or tax credits on Form 60, Schedule K, lines 1 through 16, a North Dakota Schedule K-1 does not have to be completed nor provided to a North Dakota resident individual, estate, or trust shareholder.

If all of the shareholders consist of only North Dakota resident individuals, estates, or trusts, and there are no North Dakota adjustments or tax credits reported on Schedule K, the corporation does not have to complete nor provide the North Dakota Schedule K-1 to any shareholder. All income of a North Dakota resident individual, estate, or trust is subject to North Dakota income tax, regardless of its source.

In addition to the North Dakota Schedule K-1, be sure to give the shareholder a copy of the Shareholder’s Instructions to North Dakota Schedule K-1 (Form 60). The instructions are included in the Form 60 booklet. They are also available on the Office of State Tax Commissioner’s web site.

A copy of all required North Dakota Schedule K-1s must be enclosed with Form 60 along with any required supplemental statements.

Amended schedule. If a corporation files an amended Federal Form 1120S, or if the IRS makes any changes to the Federal Form 1120S, the corporation must file an amended Form 60 for the same tax year, and must issue amended North Dakota Schedule K-1s to its shareholders. Check the “Amended” box at the top of the North Dakota Schedule K-1 if it is amended.

Shareholder’s Instructions for North Dakota Schedule K-1 (Form 60)

Purpose of schedule
North Dakota Schedule K-1 (Form 60) is provided to you by the corporation to show your share of the income, gains, losses, deductions, and other items from the corporation that you need to complete your North Dakota income tax return. These instructions will assist you in transferring the amounts from the schedule to your North Dakota income tax return.

Resident individual, estate, or trust shareholder. If you are a North Dakota resident individual, estate, or trust, you must report to North Dakota your entire share of the corporation’s income, gains, losses, and deductions included in your federal taxable income. You have received North Dakota Schedule K-1 only to show your share of the corporation’s North Dakota statutory adjustments or tax credits that may affect the preparation of your North Dakota income tax return. See the instructions to Part 3.

Nonresident individual, estate, or trust shareholder. If you are a nonresident individual, estate, or trust, you must report to North Dakota your share of the corporation’s income, gains, losses, and deductions that are apportioned and allocated to North Dakota based on the corporation’s activity in North Dakota. These items are shown in Part 4 of North Dakota Schedule K-1. Unless you are a nonresident individual who elected to include your share of these items in a composite return filed on your behalf by the corporation, you must file a North Dakota income tax return to report and pay the required income tax on them.

Composite return election. If you are a nonresident individual who elected to include your share of the corporation’s North Dakota income, gains, losses, and deductions in a composite return filed by the corporation, you are not required to file a North Dakota individual income tax return. If this applies to you, you received North Dakota Schedule K-1 to show your share of these items and the composite income tax paid on them. If you later choose to file your own North Dakota individual income tax return, follow the instructions below to transfer the amounts from North Dakota Schedule K-1 to your return.

Amended Schedule K-1 (Form 60). If you received an amended North Dakota Schedule K-1 (Form 60) from the corporation, and you previously filed a North Dakota income tax return to report your share of income, etc., from the corporation, you must file an amended North Dakota income tax return to report the changes in income, gains, losses, and deductions. You also must attach a copy of the amended North Dakota Schedule K-1 (Form 60) to your amended North Dakota income tax return.
